Come join adult literacy ESOL teachers, professional developers, museum educators and teaching artists to explore Cultures and Literacies Through Art for the 21st Century, an innovative national initiative designed for the adult English language learner.

The Institute will address museum literacy in an immigrant and English language learner context and will include:

- Exploration of visual literacy strategies and best practices when working with adult English language learners and their families in a museum or classroom setting
  - Discussion of the CALTA21 curriculum and Visual Thinking Strategies practice
- Establishing partnerships and logistics for museum trips and classroom implementation
